YOUTH CODE OF CONDUCT

As a participant in Extension events, you have the responsibility of representing this program to the public, so you are expected to conduct yourself in a manner that will bring honor to you and your family, as well as to Extension.

1. Conduct yourself and your project work in a manner that is trustworthy, respectful, responsible, fair, caring and in good citizenship.
2. Be responsible for your actions by following the rules and being accountable. This includes being in assigned program locations/sessions, abiding by deadlines, times and housing arrangements. If you are unable to participate or need assistance, notify those in charge of the event/program.
3. Treat yourself, other people, animals and program with respect, using good manners, dressing appropriately and by not using profanity. You will be personally responsible for any damage caused as a result of your behavior.
4. Know that the use of tobacco, alcohol, and non-prescribed drugs by youth is illegal.
5. Demonstrate caring for people other than yourself. Know that harassment of any type is illegal and prohibited at Extension events.
6. Be a good citizen by participating fully, and helping those around you have positive experiences.
7. Use technology and social media in safe and appropriate ways for the good of Extension Youth Development programs.

Those who are unable to conduct themselves within the guidelines may expect to:

1. Explain their actions to the adults in charge.
2. Accept the consequences of their actions.
3. Have the adults in charge work closely with parents/guardians, and others to see that actions taken, in case of unacceptable behavior, are appropriate and logical consequences for all concerned.
4. Be sent home or asked to leave the event.

I have read the “Extensions Code of Conduct” and agree to live up to the expectations. I realize my failure to do so could result in a loss of privileges during the event and in the future.
